Hugh Hamilton – “The Trickster”

Brief Tasting Notes

All in the Name: The vintage 2007 was a tricky vintage as is every vintage when it comes to Verdelho grapes. They are particularly susceptible to odium (powdery mildew), and take considerable management to keep them free of this affliction. Yes, it's a tricky variety. If you like the freshness of Sauvignon Blanc try this for something different.

Appearance:

'The Trickster' has a brilliant and fresh light citrus lemon colour to match its fresh crisp flavours.

Bouquet:

It has aromas of lemongrass, faint musk, fresh cut pear and fragrant green tea.

Palate:

It is delicate and zesty with delicious flavours of lemon curd, lime and honeydew melon.
